

Standard cookie policy

The website of Reacfin SA with registered offices at Place de l'Université, 25, B-1348 Louvain-la-Neuve, company number 0862.986.729 uses cookies.

This cookie policy gives you detailed information regarding what cookies are, the types of cookies used on our website, how long they are stored on your device, with whom the data is shared and how to disable cookies.

General Cookies Information

Cookies are small text files, generated by the websites that you visit, which contain session data related to your visit that can subsequently be used by the website that you visited to facilitate your next visit.

There are different types of cookies :

- Functional cookies are necessary in order for the website to function properly. This is why you cannot disable them.
- Relevant cookies which are used to personalize the website according to your personal preferences (for example, regarding advertisement). You can choose whether or not to consent to those cookies.
- Third-party cookies which are cookies placed by a third party and primarily used for advertisement purposes. You can choose whether or not to consent to those cookies.

Overview of cookies used on our website

Our website does not use cookies, except for Google Analytics (GA) for statistical purposes only (to know how many people visit our website, which pages are more popular, or from which countries our users come from). These cookies collect user behavior on our website and log information in a purely anonymous way: Google analytics does not identify users or associate your IP with other data held by Google. We need your consent for the use of this cookie, as it is a non-essential cookie.

How long do we keep cookies ?

Cookies will be stored on your device for 14 months.

Do we share the data with third parties?

The information collected via cookies is used exclusively by us.

Consent

We ask your consent for the use of non-essential cookies (cookies other than functional cookies), namely Google Analytics, when you first enter our website. You can choose to consent to the use of this cookie by clicking on the cookie banner that you see when you first visit the website.

You are free to choose which non-essential cookies you want to accept, without being denied access to our website. However, if you do not consent to all cookies, your browsing experience of the website may not be optimal and some of the website's utilities may not function properly.

You can change your cookie preferences by configuring your browser options to modify or block the installation of cookies.

Contact

If you have any question relating to the use of cookies, do not hesitate to send an email to gdpr@reactfin.com or to contact:
